

ASARCA SARCON 2022

Cancellation Policy

The Arizona Search and Rescue Conference is a rain or shine event. The Arizona Search & Rescue Coordinator's Association, LTD (ASARCA). reserves the right to cancel this event due to unforeseen conditions requiring cancellation for safety reasons or facility reasons. If in the event the ASARCA, or Incident Command Team, dictates cancellation of the SARCON event, attendees who have paid in full will receive a 100% reimbursement.

In all other cases, where an attendee/registrant chooses or needs to cancel registration prior to the event regardless of reason, the attendee/registrant must cancel at least fourteen (14) days prior to the start date of the SARCON event. To cancel registration, the attendee/registrant needs to notify the ASARCA of the intent to cancel in writing through electronic means, preferably through email, via their agency Search & Rescue Coordinator. The attendee/registrant who properly notifies and requests cancellation are entitled to a 100% refund of all their monies paid for the SARCON event.
